

Command Welcome Letter

Dear New Soldier,

It is my sincere pleasure to welcome you and you're Family to the 34th Military Police Detachment. As your Detachment Commander, I want to be the first to tell you welcome to Fort Knox. The learning curve at Fort Knox is steep, and our garrison OPTEMPO is high. As a result, you must arrive both mentally and physically prepared to take on all types of challenges. You are joining a team of professional warriors - the very best in the world.

At Fort Knox, the 34th Military Police Detachment provides Garrison Law Enforcement and Force Protection to the Fort Knox community. The 34th Military Police Detachment stands to support the Fort Knox community and will respond utilizing all assets including its full time Special Reaction Team.

When our Soldiers are not deployed, they execute rigorous training management cycles that include both team and squad exercises, live fire exercises, weapons ranges, law enforcement operations, and installation support operations.

It is imperative that you arrive here in top physical condition so you are prepared for the challenging physical fitness program. I am pleased to welcome you and you're Family to the 34th Military Police Detachment Family. I look forward to meeting you and wish you the best of luck as you transition to life on Fort Knox.

Sincerely,

34th MP Det Commander
