

Patton Museum Vehicles Roar Again in WWII Reenactment

Photos by Robert Stevenson

Soldiers, military families, and the general public crowded Keyes Park, Fort Knox, to see the annual July 4 living history program mounted by the Patton Museum. Reenactment groups staged a World War II-style skirmish using original restored vehicles.

ARMOR

The Professional Development Bulletin of the Armor Branch
U.S. Army Armor Center
ATTN: ATZK-TDM
Fort Knox, KY 40121-5210

Periodicals Postage
Paid at Louisville, KY